SUMMARTÓNAR

FAROE ISLANDS

FESTIVAL

OF CLASSICAL AND CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

June 1st – August 20th 2013

Welcome to Summartónar 2013

This year we celebrate the 22nd Summartónar festival.

Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld (Association of Faroese Composers) organizes the annual Summartónar festival all over the Faroe Islands. With its focus on composition, the Summartónar festival is a continuous, vital dynamo in the development of Faroese music.

The 2013 festival programme reflects its role as a platform for new works by Faroese composers, many of them first performances. In the past few years, Summartónar has also presented improvised music, as well as contemporary folk music and a few rock concerts.

Faroese Stamps
- and ancient ballads

One of the recurring cultural events in European culture is the vision of the mythical dragon slayer. He appears in many shapes and under different names, but the essence of the stories is the cultural hero who, despite poor odds, kills the great dragon or serpent in the mythical landscape.

This beautiful folder contains the stamp sheet "Regin the Blacksmith" and a brief text in English and Chinese telling the story.

The stamp sheet is designed by Anker Eli Petersen.

Artists

Alda Magna. The group comprises of four musicians who all live in the Faroe Islands. The compositions Alda Magna perform are atmospheric wanderings into abstract soundscapes with strong sensibilities for historical reference and contemporary music.

Aldubáran. In 1995 seven young Faroese musicians formed an ensemble with performing and promoting Faroese music as their main purpose. Today Aldubáran has 14 members. Aldubáran has commissioned and premiered a vast number of works by Faroese and foreign composers. This year Aldubáran's sinfonietta performances are devoted to the works of American composer Hsueh-Yung Shen.

In 2006 Alliance emerged on the Swedish jazz scene and has performed and recorded ever since. The quartet consists of pianist Fredrik Hermansson, bass player Kristian Lind, drummer Björn Sima and saxophonist Christian Herluf Pedersen. Melodic grooving jazz – enjoy!

Manchet Anders Hjuler has been a performance artist since 1968. He has worked with musicians and dancers in various settings. Recent collaborations included Live Paint combinations in concerts, e.g. Harmonic Port in Faroe Islands and working on a H. C. Andersen fairytale in Tallinn, Riga with Blak - Carlsen and dancers. He has exhibited extensively. www.andershjuler.dk

Anders Jormin is a composer and celebrated double bassist, highly-respected, internationally, in the field of contemporary improvised music. Holding a Professorship in Sweden as well as an honorary doctorate degree in improvisation, Anders holds an international reputation and is one of Scandinavia's best-known artists.

Angelika Nielsen has premiered several new compositions by Faroese composers as a classical soloist. She is also touring world-wide with folk/world/jazz bands Yggdrasil, Kvonn, Dánjal and Norland Wind.

Anna Hüdepohl was born and raised in Northern Germany. She studied classical accordion at the Royal Academy of Music in Aarhus, Denmark. Angelika Nielsen (viola/violin) and Anna Hüdepohl draw from the repertoire of the Baroque and Romantic periods as well as on contemporary music.

Arnold Ludvig (1968) is a bass player and composer who picked up the bass in the 1980s, studied jazz music and started composing his own music in the early 1990s. Arnold is well-known locally for his contributions to albums by Terji & Føstufressar, Plúmm & Holger Laumann, Gogo Blues, MonkeyRat et al.

At Summartonar 2013, Audio Exhibition will consist of Andras S. Olsen (trombone), Matias Seibæk (percussion) and Santiago Gutiérrez Bolio (guitar and electronics). Audio Exhibition has existed since 2008 and this is to be their second visit to Summartónar. They play new music, especially commissioned for them, and this year they will premiere 6 new works over 3 different concerts.

Cassiopeia Winds is a wood wind quintet based in Copenhagen. All musicians are currently students at The Royal Conservatory of Copenhagen.

Saxophonist Christian Herluf Pedersen (part Danish/part Faroese) moved to Sweden 1998 and finished his jazz studies at the Royal College of Music in Stockholm 2006. He is now a well known member of various Swedish ensembles across many different genres.

Orchestra. Working as a deckhand onboard Norðlýsið most summers means that he is no stranger to the cave concerts, and Klæmintsgjógv is, in fact, his favourite concert venue in the whole world.

Det Danske Drengekor (The Danish Boys Choir) was founded in 1943. The choir consists of boys aged between 9 and 15. The Danish Boys Choir is probably the most widely travelled choir in Denmark. Almost every Danish town has been visited and the choir has performed in USA, Canada, Japan, Israel, Russia, Greenland, New Zealand, China, East Africa, Argentina and in almost all European countries. The Danish Boys Choir has had a contract with The Royal Danish Opera for the last 25 years. The choir has e.g. taken an active part in Tosca, Carmen, Boris Godunov, The Rosenkavalier, Wozzeck, La Boheme and Turandot.

Francesco Benozzo and Fabio Bonvicini are two musicians from Northern Italy, whose work combines original music and traditional song orally collected in the mountains of the Apennines. After producing several CDs individually over the past few years, they recently joined forces for a Tutl project on Italian anarchist songs from the late 19th century. www.francescobenozzo.com www.pivaritrio.com

The word “ensemble” is French. It is - among other things - a term used about musicians, who play music in small groups of instrumentalists. Such an ensemble is the Fredensborg Brass Ensemble. The 17 members are committed to making music for brass and percussion instruments only. Playing concerts both indoors and outdoors allows them to indulge in the lighter side of the brass repertoire. They play frequently in churches, and have been invited to play in the cathedrals of Helsingore and Maribo several times. www.fredensborgbrassensemble.dk Fróði Hansen is a Faroese singer/songwriter. He has released 3 albums of his own works over the past 4 years. The two latest albums are with his band, Frodi & the Pink Slips. His lyrics are mainly in English.

Guðrið Hansdóttir (b. 1980) is a Faroese singer/songwriter. She has released 3 studio albums with her own compositions and has been touring widely around Europe and the USA the last years.

Hamferð is a Faroese doom metal band from Tórshavn. The band was formed in 2008 with one goal: To bring slow, crushing and atmospheric music to the Faroe Islands, the home to a bleak and depressive atmosphere that can only be properly communicated through the funeral march of doom metal.

Heðin Ziska Davidsen is, basically, a rock guitarist with other interests such as metal and jazz music. As the bandleader of Tjant he composes all material and has released 3 albums. Heðin tours widely with own band and with bands such as Yggdrasil and Marius Ziska.

Herluf Lützen, Agnar Lamhauge and Rógvi á Rógvu. The guitar player Herluf Lützen has been playing jazz, rock etc. music for many years. Agnar Lamhauge plays the double bass and the electric bass in this group. He is a member of the Faroese Symphony Orchestra. He is also known as a member of the legendary folk group Enekk. Rógvi á Rógvi is probably the most frequently employed drummer in Faroese music. The group will be playing its own compositions.

Hi-Lo & In Between is a folk/pop band from Tampere, Finland. They have released three studio albums and have toured around Europe for six years. Since 2012 they have been collaborating with the Faroese artist Guðrið Hansdóttir. Their three albums: "White Whale" (2008), "The Lonely Bird" (2010) and "We are not the Wind" (2011).

Himmerland is a group of five travelling musicians, each carrying very different life stories and traditions in their rucksacks. They come from three regions of Denmark - Bornholm, Copenhagen, and Northern Jutland - and from Poland and Ghana. They compose their own music and infuse it with all the different traditions that run in their blood. Travelling with their music to Europe, Russia, Canada, South America, Australia and New Zealand, they represent a Denmark where people from around the world can meet, live together and all contribute to a sweetly simmering cultural melting pot.

holgar is a singer/songwriter from the Faroe Islands. The release of the CD “Ongan veg” in 2010 was a success, and he is now working on a new solo CD. holgar is also a member of the band Villmenn with whom he has released 3 CDs. holgar is also a member of the band Tinganest. His music is best described as folk/pop, and he has his own fingerpicking guitar style.

Kamartrioin is a chamber trio consisting of Monika Stauss Joensen, violin, Kenneth Jones, trumpet and Birgitte Schnakenburg, piano. They are all presently living and working in the Faroe Islands and are employed in the Faroese School of Music. The group performs as a trio as well as a violin-piano-duo and trumpet-piano-duo. They have played many concerts in the Faroe Islands as well as overseas concert tours to USA, England and Denmark. To date this group has released two CD recordings for Violin & Piano and one CD recording for Trumpet & Piano. The trio first appeared at Summartónar 2010 and has since regularly performed newly commissioned Faroese compositions. In 2013 the Trio will perform newly commissioned Faroese compositions written by Leif Hansen and Pauli Í Sandagerði in addition to music from the standard repertoire.

Kim Hansen (1977) and Hans Petur í Brekkunum (1973) compose and perform new Faroese hymns.

Kristian Blak is involved in a wide range of musical activities. He composes for international classical ensembles, performs locally and tours internationally as a musician and band leader with jazz, folk and world music groups.

Kvonn is a group of musicians from the Faroe Islands that plays traditional and contemporary folk music from Scandinavia. Kvonn's repertoire includes music composed by the band members, as well as traditional tunes.

Contemporary jazz musician, Magnus Johannessen is best known for his lyrical playing and melodic perspective. In addition to Nordic sound, Magnus has drawn much inspiration from jazz icons Bill Evans and Kenny Wheeler, Lyle May's soundscapes and the minimalism of Arvo Pärt. Magnus has managed to combine these sounds and forge a personal music signature through his own harmonic instinct and lyrical playing.

Mattias Kapnas (b. 1991) is a Faroese pianist. He has performed as a soloist, chamber musician and with bands for the Faroese acid, noise, space, jazz scene; most notably with the band Bendar Spónir. This year's festival will be the first time that Mattias performs contemporary classical music from the Faroes, along with some broader repertoire. He is currently a student of Amalie Malling at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen.

The Max Brand Ensemble are named after the famous Austrian composer Max Brand (Machinist Hopkins). The group is known for its innovative approach to new music and its multi-faceted and diverse vocabulary of expression: experimental music, world music rhythms, parametric and free improvisation, contemporary jazz, electronic media, experimental communication and all mesh into a special end-result that promises audiences a memorable experience.

Mira Kvartetten is one of the important Danish chamber music ensembles, with a repertoire of classical quartets as well as newly written music. Based in Jutland, they perform all over Denmark and tours internationally. www.mirakvartetten.dk MonkeyRat´s songwriter, Anna Iachino, sings and raps over award winner Arnold Ludvig's superb bass playing and well-crafted music. Together, they deliver an original and powerful expression, rooted in Funk, with doses of Reggae, Retro, Soul, Urban and hints of Jazz and Punk.

Mpiri is a Faroese vocal ensemble based in Copenhagen. Founded in 1998 by young Faroese students living in Copenhagen the main impetus of the project has been to create new music. This is one of the reasons Mpiri has commissioned more than 30 new choral works by more than 10 composers. The ensemble has been exploring the soundworlds that lay beyond traditional choral singing.

Norðan is a Nordic fiddle and Celtic harp duo. The Faroese violinist Angelika Nielsen and the German harpist Thomas Loefke formed Norðan in order to play their own compositions, a hybrid of Nordic and Celtic music. Both perform internationally for various projects, one of those being the Celtic quintet Norland wind.

Ólavur Jakobsen. Largely self-taught as a classical guitarist he commenced his studies at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen in Denmark with guitarist Ingolf Olsen. Further studies in Paris with French guitarist Roland Dyens and masterclasses with Sir Julian Bream and David Russell. Ólavur is co-founder of the Faroese chamber ensemble Aldubáran, and divides his time between teaching, performing, touring and promoting Faroese music.

Qaanaaq. A group from the school in Qaanaaq performs songs and games from their ancient Thule Inuit tradition.

Ragnar Olsen had his diploma as guitarist from The Conservatory of Esbjerg studying with Jørgen Bjørslev. Additional masterclasses with among others Timo Korhonen in Finland.

Ragnar is an active soloist and chamber musician, and as a music teacher at Føroya Musikkskúla, he is the director of Sandoyar Musikkskúla.

Rune Alver performs music from all periods. As he was born in Bergen Norway, the works of Edvard Grieg are an important part of his repertoire. More recent and contemporary, living Norwegian composers are a frequent feature of his programmes too. He performs regularly all over the world.

Saum is a classical nordic trio; a Danish singer, mezzo soprano Ingeborg Fangel Mo, a Norwegian flutist Jorunn Abrahamsen and a Danish guitarist Thomas Winthereik. They have enjoyed performing together for some years, focusing on contemporary nordic songs and chamber music, often inspired by folk music.

The composer Thomas Agergaard is a saxophone player, rooted in the Nordic tradition and has performed internationally on several occasions. He plays the tenor sax, but is very well known for his original work and arrangements and his contributions to many innovative projects.

Thomas Loefke learnt his trade in Dublin from Ireland's leading harpists. He has been touring, composing and recording (8 CDs) since 1984. When not a soloist, he plays with Norland Wind (feat. Angelika Nielsen), Acoustic Eidolon or Máire Breatnach. Www. ThomasLoefke.eu

For the past 10 years Uni R. Debess has been establishing himself as Mr. Blues in the Faroe Islands. He has even succeeded in writing several hits alongside his various blues band constellations such as GoGo Blues, Debess Blues Station and Crawling Blue.

Via Artis Konsort is an international Early Music Ensemble playing innovative repertoire from the borderline between early classical and modal world music traditions. The Ensemble has performed in more than 200 concerts in Europe and Latin America and has released 3 albums. The 2 concerts in Tórshavn are offered in collaboration with the Faroese chamber choir Mpiri.

Yggdrasil is a Nordic ensemble based in the Faroe Islands. Formed in 1981 by composer & pianist Kristian Blak, Yggdrasil has a repertoire that encompasses a wide range of genres, from free jazz to classical.

FAROESE COMPOSERS PERFORMED AT SUMMARTÓNAR 2013:

Atli K. Petersen (b. 1963). Atli's works have frequently been inspired by the Faroese musical heritage. Atli is active as a composer, trombone and tuba player, conductor and teacher.

Andras Spang Olsen (b. 1978) studied trombone in Aarhus, London and Copenhagen. He has a great interest in contemporary music and has worked with some of the leading ensembles in Denmark and Europe. Andras is a member of Aldubáran.

Heðin Ziska Davidsen (b. 1977) is a rock guitarist with other interests such as composing metal and jazz music. In recent years he has become increasingly interested in cross-over forms and composing electro-acoustic music.

Jens L. Thomsen (1980) is known for his unique and innovative approach to film and theatre music as well as producing albums. He is also the founder fo the award-winning musical project ORKA.

Kári Bæk (b. 1950). Kári's interest in composition sprang from his work as a conductor and his earliest works were arrangements of Faroese tunes, but he later started composing both instrumental and choir music.

Kim Kristensen (b. 1956) composes music in a wide spectrum of genres such as a variety of jazz lineups, classical ensembles, film and theatre. Also specializes in electronic music.

Kristian Blak (b. 1947). His diverse musical background is reflected in the music he composes, often uniting ethnic music with new compositional techniques. He has a central role in the musical life of the Faroe Islands and is the artistic director of the Summartónar festival.

Leif Hansen (b. 1976) was born on the island of Nólsoy. He is a choral leader, composer and organist.

Contemporary jazz musician, Magnus Johannessen (b. 1967) is best known for his lyrical playing and melodic perspective. However in recent years, he has emerged as a composer and orchestrator.

The music of Tróndur Bogason (b. 1976) has a distinctive and ghostlike character - filled with temperament and primal force. His music contains a dramaturgy in which the use of spatial and visual aspects often play a dominant role.

Páll Sólstein (b. 1964) studied french horn in Copenhagen and works at the Royal Danish Opera. He has composed chamber works, and songs to poems of Faroese poets.

Pauli í Sandagerði (b. 1955) has been one of the pioneers in Faroese musical composition. His earliest interest was in playing the piano but has developed over time a great interest in working with choirs and composing. Today he is best known as a composer.

Regin Winther Poulsen is a young composer from Hoyvík in the Faroe Islands. He has been playing the tenor horn since he was a child, but he only started composing his own, original music recently. The 2013 Summartónar Festival will mark the first performance of his woodwind quintet "Meldursmyndir". Roughly translated, "Meldursmyndir", means "gusty pictures". The piece is inspired by the hectic and stressful times we are living in.

Sunleif Rasmussen (b. 1961). Sunleif's music has been commissioned and performed world wide. In addition to works for acoustic instruments, Sunleif has produced a number of works combining electronic and acoustic instruments.

FAR AFIELD, AND YET SO CLOSE …

In picturesque surroundings, far away from the treadmill of reality, Gjáargarður is the most charming hotel in the Faroe Islands.

Enjoy the idyllic village of Gjógv or go hiking in the impressive countryside.

Back at the hotel, a lovely dinner awaits your fresh and uplifted spirit.

Gjógv is ideally situated – enjoy local attractions or go sightseeing by car. The northern islands are less than an hour away, as is Tórshavn, the cosy historic capital.

With our friendly service and hospitality, you are guaranteed an unforgettable stay.

Welcome to Gjáargarður
